We are offering for sale a well-established restaurant and pizzeria located in a strategic location, just steps from Lucca's historic center. The business boasts a well-established reputation and a loyal customer base, representing an attractive opportunity for those looking to invest in an already established and fully operational business. The business is located within a commercial space of approximately 135 square meters, cleverly arranged into a large dining room, a pizzeria area, a fully equipped kitchen, a warehouse, and restrooms. All the spaces are in excellent condition and are equipped with the necessary equipment for immediate continuation of the business, without the need for further investments. An ideal solution for industry professionals seeking a historic, well-organized, and ready-to-use business in one of the city's most sought-after areas.
